

PAULO CÉSAR SOARES

Born in Gravataí (RS), Brazil, in 1943. Teacher at basic education programs, in SEC-RS and CNSA/CNEC-Gravataí (RS). Geologist by UFRGS. Special courses in Math teaching (UFRGS), Geography (UEPG-PR), Petroleum Geology (Petrobrás); Geophysics and Statistic (Northwestern University). Doctor in Science and Associated Teacher thesis and position at UNESP; Full Professor thesis and position at UFPR. Visiting Researcher and Assistant Professor at Northwestern University. President of Brazilian Geological Society (1989-90). More than one hundred published papers in regional, national and international reviews and book chapters. Consulting and advisor for CNPq, PADCT, FAPESP, CAPES and others financing agencies and programmes. Consulting and corporative courses for government and private companies and agencies, including Petrobras, Vale, Votorantin, Geological Survey (CPRM, Mineropar, IPT-SP).

TEMA / THEME:

DICHOTOMOUS OPTIONS IN EARTH SCIENCES EDUCATION: BRIEF REFLECTION